VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Property is located only about one and one-quarter miles from the city and near school. This is one of the best properties in the vicinity to make money on. Owing to its location, the highest prices are always realized from the produce. The income from the dairy alone exceeds $2,000.00. With the farm will be sold all the personal property, including stock, tools and produce. There is probably over $3,000.00 worth of personal property on the place. ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The Rev. Mr. Hardy of West Peabody, Mass., has accepted the call from the Congregational church at East Burke.

Ex-Gov. John G. McCullough has closed his summer residence at North Bennington and has gone to New York to pass the winter.

Most of the merchants of Lyndonville and Lyndon Center have given notice that they shall issue no more trading stamps after December 1.

Five cows in a herd owned by J. H. Smith of Eden, have died recently after being sick only a short time of a disease which the veterinarians have not yet been able to identify.

At a special meeting held at Waterbury Thursday evening, G. W. Morse was elected president of the village. D. W. Cooley was elected water commissioner. It was voted to have new seats for the town hall.

On a little less than one and one-fourth acres of ground, Corydon Parker of Sutton has raised nearly five hundred bushels of potatoes, or at the rate of four hundred bushels to the acre. The largest one weighed two pounds and seven ounces, and others were nearly as large.

So far as can be learned Sing Lee, the Chinaman under arrest in New York charged with murdering Mock Duck does not hail from Montpelier as stated in the press despatches Friday from New York. Several years ago, a Chinaman by that name conducted a laundry here, but he has not been in the city for ten years or more.

Wales Sargent took into Randolph Thursday an excellent specimen of a golden eagle that he shot the day before in the woods near the Heman Powers farm in Braintree. The bird, which weighed nearly eight pounds, has a spread of seven feet from tip to tip of its wings. It was purchased by F. H. Joselyn, who will have it mounted and placed among his collection of birds at his store.

SIRENS AND SONS.

Pierre Barlow Cornwall, the last surviving member of the first legislature of California, is dead.

Dr. Jorge Munos, the new minister from Guatemala, is wiry and alert in figure and is a typical Central American.

Henry Irving, the actor, is planning a farewell tour of America in 1905, when he will conclude a fifty years' career on the stage.

Admiral Robert Vireo, to whom the command of the remnant of the Port Arthur fleet has been entrusted, is called the Russian Nelson.

W. F. Dunham, a Chicago druggist, has just completed his collection of United States coins by the purchase of a Dexter dollar of 1804 for $1,100.

Marquis Oyama is a trifle over six feet in height and weighs 200 pounds. His size, which would be unusual anywhere, has gained him the title in his own country of "the giant of the army."

William T. Stead, the celebrated writer and economist, has just attended the theater for the first time in fifty years, and chose for his senile centenary re-entry into the realm of drama Berthold Tree's revival of "The Tempest."

Dr. Carl M. Lee, a full blooded Chinese, is now the licensed Chinese chauffeur on the Pacific coast. The chauffeur examiner says that in the short space of two weeks he achieved a greater skill than most white chauffeurs possess.

Ex-Governor W. Murray Crane, who has been appointed United States senator from Massachusetts to fill the unexpired term of the late George F. Hoar, began life as a ragspicker and worked his way through the various grades of the paper making business until he reached the top.

While arguing a case in the state supreme court at Helena, Mont., the other day ex-Governor P. H. Leslie casually mentioned that he had just entered upon the sixty-fourth year of his practice as a lawyer. Before President Cleveland appointed him territorial governor of Montana he was governor of Kentucky.

KINGS AND QUEENS.

Alfonso, king of Spain, devotes his afternoons to athletics.

The crown of the queen of Holland is very gorgeous. It is of dull gold, only the edges being polished, and the design is quaint.

Queen Alexandra still preserves the blue poplin dress in which she went to England as the prospective wife of the Prince of Wales more than forty years ago.

The king of Italy is the most able of royal motorists, for he has passed a severe practical examination. He is a clever mechanic and can repair his motor as well as drive it.

Safety Device For Naval Gunners.

Under the supervision of Commander Karl Rohrer the ordnance department in the New York navy yard is installing a smoke ejecting device on the big guns of the battleship Kentucky to prevent what are known as "blow backs" when the guns are fired, says the New York Herald. When the breach of a big gun is opened after a shot has been fired it happens sometimes that gas and smoke which have accumulated in the bore become ignited and flash back into the turret. If powder is exposed in the turret an explosion is almost sure to follow. The new device consists of an accumulator and connections that force a current of air through the gun from the breech, expelling the dangerous gases from the muzzle.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the eyes of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Rickert & Wells, Special Agents.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

The wife of the archbishop of Canterbury, is the daughter of her husband's predecessor.

Mrs. Hetty Green has between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 and lives on less than $5,000 a year.

Mrs. Emily Edson Briggs, the woman correspondent Olivia of forty years ago and a pioneer in the field, is still living in Washington.

Mrs. P. B. Blanchard has presented the Christ Episcopal church of Oyster Bay with a jeweled processional cross in memory of her mother.

Captain Mary Becker Greene is the only woman steamboat master plying the waters of the Mississippi and Ohio. She's the only woman pilot.

Mrs. Robert Walker, who through the death of her father, William Weightman of Philadelphia, has become one of the richest women in the world, is described as unusually handsome.

Since Mrs. Willie Vanderbilt has had her two children she has almost retired from society. Indeed, she is with her children most of the time. They have both been baptized in the Catholic church.

Louisa, Lady Ashburton, is said to be, next to Lady Burdett-Coutts, the richest woman in England and owns many choice works of art. She is very religious and opens her home to meetings. She is also most charitable.

Mme. Albert has just a little bit of superstition in her nature. On her debut at Covent Garden, London, in 1872, as she was going on to the stage a large black cat ran across her path. And she huggingly declares that after seeing black cats she is always in luck's way.

Champagne Corks.

Corks for champagne bottles were first used by the famous Benedictine monk Perignon at Hautvilliers, near Eperney, to whom is credited the secret of making champagne effervescent. Before his time, 1670, wine bottles were stopped by flax dipped in oil.
